

TALISMAN

E N E R G Y

TALISMAN ENERGY JOINS VOLUNTARY PRINCIPLES ON SECURITY AND HUMAN RIGHTS PLENARY GROUP

Talisman Energy has become the first Canadian company to join the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights Plenary Group.

The Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights were developed by the US and UK governments, select resource companies and various civil society groups as an international framework for the provision of security. In joining the process, Talisman agrees to abide by the Participation Criteria adopted by the Plenary in May 2007. The full text of the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights, the participation criteria and list of current participants may be found at www.voluntaryprinciples.org.

Since 2004, Talisman has incorporated the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights into its Policy on Business Conduct and Ethics and related security policies and guidelines in an effort to provide employees with safe work environments, promote respect for human rights and advance best practices with governments, joint venture participants and third parties.

Talisman Energy Inc. is an independent upstream oil and gas company headquartered in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. The Company and its subsidiaries have operations in North America, the North Sea, Southeast Asia, and North Africa. Talisman's subsidiaries are also active in a number of other international areas. Talisman is committed to conducting its business in an ethically, socially and environmentally responsible manner. The Company is a participant in the United Nations Global Compact and included in the Dow Jones Sustainability (North America) Index. Talisman's shares are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange in Canada and the New York Stock Exchange in the United States under the symbol TLM.

Talisman's Corporate Responsibility Report is available at: www.talisman-energy.com.

For Further Information Please Contact:

Reg Manhas, Senior Manager
Corporate Responsibility and Government Affairs
(403) 237-1449
(403) 231-3629 (FAX)
Email: rmanhas@talisman-energy.com