

Synergex Develops Relationship with GO Transit

MISSISSAUGA, ONTARIO--(May 24, 2007) - Synergex Corporation (TSX: SYX) ("Synergex"), a leading provider of business solutions, announced today an exciting addition to its roster of customers. Synergex has been commissioned to supply the Greater Toronto Transit Authority ("GO Transit") with professional translation services for a three (3) year term. The language services will be provided by Synergex' wholly owned subsidiary, Hyperactive Entertainment Inc.

The partnership with GO Transit to provide translation services helps achieve one of Synergex' growth strategies: to strengthen the company's customer base within the bilingual marketplace. GO Transit is recognized as a leader for its system-wide deployment of bilingual accessibility standards. Through this partnership, Synergex will leverage its experienced linguists and translators to help mirror GO Transit's English messaging and service objectives into the French language, for the benefit of their customers, employees and stakeholders.

Eric So, Vice-President, Corporate Strategy of Synergex said, "We are thrilled about our partnership with GO Transit and to be working closely with an organization that shares our common vision of leadership, and innovation. We will provide GO Transit with the professional services they require to broaden the organization's accessibility to their customers."
