

Enterra Compliant with NYSE US$1.00 Unit Price Continued Listing Standard

Calgary, Alberta – (Marketwire – June 2, 2009) Enterra Energy Trust (“Enterra”, “We”, “Our” or the “Trust”) has received notice from the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) that it is now in compliance with the minimum US$1.00 Unit Price Continued Listing Standard, with its units having traded above US$1.00 over the last 30 days on the NYSE.

“It has always been our objective to ensure that our unitholders and prospective unitholders are able to trade on both the NYSE and the TSX, so we are pleased that one of the NYSE’s continued listing standard deficiencies has been resolved and we are well on our way to resolving the final deficiency” commented Don Klapko, CEO of Enterra.

Enterra announced on April 8, 2009, that its business plan to address certain continued listing standard deficiencies had been approved by the NYSE. The Trust has until May 2010 to achieve a minimum US$75 million market capitalization. Current market capitalization has been above this standard since the start of the second quarter of 2009, but must remain above this level for two consecutive quarters before the NYSE can confirm compliance.

Enterra continues to be in compliance with the listing requirements of the Toronto Stock Exchange.
