ATCO AWARDED NATO CONTRACT IN SARAJEVO

Wins bid for provision of computer information systems support to NATO, European Union Forces

CALGARY, Alberta – ATCO Structures & Logistics today announced it has been awarded a contract to provide full operation and maintenance support for computer information systems (CIS) on behalf of NATO headquarters (HQ) Sarajevo and European Union Forces (EUFOR) HQ in Bosnia-Herzegovina.

Under the three-year contract, ATCO Frontec Europe Ltd., a subsidiary of ATCO Structures & Logistics, will provide CIS management and technical support, as well as operation and maintenance of NATO and EUFOR information systems, including: automated data processing (ADP) maintenance, help desk, system administration, telecommunications, crypto and cable plant data.

“This is our second consecutive CIS contract with NATO headquarters in Sarajevo and we are honoured that this NATO-led operation has again chosen ATCO to support its CIS requirements,” said Harry Wilmot, President and Chief Operating Officer, ATCO Structures & Logistics. “ATCO Frontec Europe has developed extensive experience and expertise in the Balkans region supporting NATO and EUFOR.”

ATCO Frontec Europe also provides support to other NATO operations, including the International Security and Assistance Force in Afghanistan. Support services provided include waste management services, fire crash and rescue, utilities and maintenance at Kandahar Airfield in Afghanistan.
