RESCUED CHILEAN MINERS' CANADIAN TOUR COMING TO VANCOUVER

Seven-city tour promotes upcoming BAFONA dance performances to raise funds for rebuilding a Chilean school

VANCOUVER - ATCO Structures & Logistics is joining the organization, Together for Chile, in bringing two rescued Chilean miners to Vancouver Sept. 23-24, 2011 as part of a promotional tour of seven major Canadian cities. The miners will promote the upcoming National Folkloric Ballet of Chile (BAFONA) Canada Tour 2011. The cultural dance performances will raise funds for the reconstruction of a Chilean school destroyed by an earthquake in 2010.

Franklin Lobos and Omar Reygadas are two of the 33 Chilean miners rescued last October after spending a record 69 days trapped in a mine near San Jose, Chile. Tecno Fast ATCO S.A., the South American joint-venture partner of ATCO Structures & Logistics, donated 33 modular units for medical evaluations and family receptions after the rescue.

The Chilean Miners' Tour will include a media conference and availability at Best Western Chateau Granville, 1100 Granville Street at 10 a.m., Sept. 23, 2011. For more information, contact Dan Toth, Senior Advisor, Marketing and Communications, ATCO Structures & Logistics (403) 813-1951.
